Corrigendum

Corrigendum to “The “four-finger ruler” as a novel, simple and easy technique for hands placement during CPR training” [Resuscitation 182 (2022) 109683]

N.K. Nakagawa^{a,}, I.C. Salles^a, M.M. Costa^a, J.L. Pinho^a, B.W. Böttiger^b*

The authors regret that an error occurred in the following sentence: “Although we did not perform comparisons with the other five approaches, reported by Fijacko et al.,⁴ we found the “four-finger ruler” technique very friendly to users, novel and easy to perform due to trainings”.

The authors would like to apologise for any inconvenience caused.
